NEWS FROM MANY SECTIONS OF THE PERSONAL AND SOCIAL

Concert Arranged for the Devastated France Committee

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Leon to Entertain at Cosmopolitan Club-Mme. Calve to Sing.

S is usual at this season of the A year, there always is a large exodus of society Southward, with Palm Beach, Miami, St. Augustine, Hot Springs and White Sulphur as the objective. A number of prominent citizens of New York left the tity last week and others are scheduled to leave in the next few days. Those who remain at home content themselves by entertaining in informal ways, giving luncheons, followed by matinee parties, or cards and dinners, taking their guests later to the theater or opera and supper at some of the fashionable hotels.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Leon will give a French evening to-morrow at the Cosmopolitan Club for Gaston Liebert, the French Consul-General in New York, and the officers of the American Committee for Devastated France. Mme. Emma Calve will sing.

Mrs. A. W. Wendel and Mrs. Richard Denbigh gave a luncheon on Wednesday at the Hotel Astor for Noble McConnell. Afterward they took their guests to the theater.

Rear Admiral Samuel McGowan, U. S. N. (retired), has returned to New York after several weeks passed in the Southern resorts, and is at the Hotel Astor to remain for some time before going to Washington, D. C.

Lieut. Edward Cuyler Applegate, U. S. A., and Mrs. Applegate, who were married Saturday last in St. Chrysostom's Chapel, this city, by the Rev. Dr. C. Nelson Moller, when they return from their honeymoon will go to his station at Governors Island. Mrs. Applegate was Miss Vivin S. Low daughter of at Governors Island. Mrs. Applegate was Miss Vivian S. Low, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Low of Watertown, S. D. She is a graduate of the College of Notre Dame, Paris, and of Dana Hall and has been studying music at the Ithaca Conservatory of Music.
Licut. Applegate is a egrandson of Col.
William E. Applegate, a Kentucky turfman, and a son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Applegate, Jr., of Louisville, Ky.

A is

Mrs. J. B. Francis Herreshoff has gone to St. Augustine, Fla., for a stay of several weeks. Mrs. Herreshoff has many friends in St. Augustine, where

Mrs. Charles Daniel Orth and her daughter, Miss Kathryn Knight, who have been spending several weeks in the Bahamas, will return to their New York home, 68 East Fifty-fourth street, the latter part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Bucknam of 430 Park avenue entertained at dinner and bridge at the Plaza on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Charles H. Guye of 44 West Sixty-ninth street will give an afternoon tea and dance on April 1 at the Plaza for her daughter, Miss Pauline L. Guye.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Franklin Moss have

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Singer are in Palm Beach for the month of March. They are staying at the Malsonette Apart-

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Spencer Leman, who were married on March 2 at the Ritz-Carlton, are spending their honeymoon at White Sulphur Springs, Va. They will live in New York. Mrs. Leman was Miss Anne Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Baker of 330 West 102d street.

Mrs. Noble McConnell will give a luncheon, followed by cards, for Mrs. E. Bassford Schmalholz on March 28 at the Hotel Astor. Mrs. A. W. Wendel and Mrs. Richard Denbigh will be in charge of the report.

A bridge party will be given at the auspices of the Guardian Mothers of Pleasantville.

dance on March 31 at the Waldorf-Astoria.

Mrs, Lincoln Rogers and Mrs, Emma Seaman will entertain the members of the board of the New York Mozart So-tiety on March 30. Afterward they will take their guests to the opera. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene H. Paddock

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene H. Paddock, when they return from their wedding trip, will live in this city. Their marriage took place on March 4 in St. John's Episcopal Church, Passaic, N. J. Mrs. Paddock was Miss Grace Derby Banker, daughter of Mrs. William Bushnell Banker of that place.

Another meeting of Mrs. Tin tin O'Connor's Entre Nous Dancing b was held yesterday afternoon at the Hotel Plaza. The club will have an evening dance on April 7.

Mr. and Mrs. James Cox Brady, who have been cruising in Southern waters on board their yacht, the Adventuress, are on their way to New York in their private car.

Mr. and Mrs. James Cummings Barr have returned to their home, 11 East Sixty-eighth street, from Boston.

and Mrs. George Thorne Hill,

Jr., have returned to the Hotel Am-bassador from Pinehurst, N. C. Mrs. Jean L. Collins of 16 West Fifty-fourth street is entertaining Miss Peggy Thayer of Philadelphia.

Mrs. Charles W. Fisk and her daugh-Mrs. Charles W. Fisk and her daugh-ter. Miss Fellicia Fisk, of 165 East Fifty-third street are at Paim Beach, the guests of Mrs. Charles L. Harding at the latter's villa. Mrs. Harding gave a luncheon in their honor last week.

and Mrs. Joseph Paterno have left Palm Beach, where they spent the greater part of the winter, and are now at White Sulphur Springs.

and Mrs. Charles L. Zabriskie of 156 East Seventy-ninth street will spend the summer in Greenwich, Conn. They have Just rented the Higgins house there accompanied by Mrs. James H. Mears, have gone to Hot Springs for the Lenten ley on Hudson have joined the cottage colony at Miami, Fla. They are accom-panied by their son, Mr. Porter Fearey, Jr., and Mr. Lloyd N. Scott.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Whitehead.

Women in Welfare Work and a Future Bride

MRS. SAMUEL STREIT
A PATRONESS of the JUDSON
HEALTH CENTER DANCE ON
MARCH 17
Photo by Royal Meller

West End avenue were among sailing on Wednesday for Europe. will make an extended trip abroad

The St. Cecilia Club will give a concert on the evening of April 5 at the Waldorf-Astoria.

erary program was given. The recep-tion was a farewell to Mrs. Du Puy who will sail soon, with Mr. Du Puy and their daughter, for a visit to Switz-

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Marshall Rosen-

Miss Ethel J. Elkus, daughter of Mr. Abram I. Elkus, formerly American Am-bassador to Turkey, was among those returning from Bermuda last week. Her father, who went there for his health, remained in Bermuda and probably will not return to New York until early in

A large card party will be given on Tuesday at the Hotel Astor under the auspices of the New York Mozart Society, Mrs. Noble McConnell president. It will be in charge of Mrs. E. Bassford Schmalholz. Bridge, euchre and five hundred will be the games played.

Mrs. Margaret Baker Harrison gave a talk at the meeting of the Daughters of Alabama on Tuesday afternoon at the Hotel Astor. Mrs. Harrison related her experiences in Russia, where she spent ten months in prison. phia. Mr. Loening is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Loening of New York. They were married on February 4 in Phila-delphia.

A dinner will be given at the Hotel Pennsylvania this evening by the Lucy Stone League. There will be a debate afterward on "Shall Women Lose Their Names at Marriage?" Mr. Arthur Som-ers Roche will speak in the affirmative and Mr. Heywood Broun in the negative.

Mrs. Frank G. Cochran will give a theater party followed by a supper at the Hotel Aster on March 27.

Mrs. F. MacDonald Sinclair has gone to Bermuda, where she will remain until the latter part of March,

An afternoon of cards will be held at the Hotel Astor on April 6 under the auspices of the Quarter-Collection, an organization which was founded in 1914 and works in the interests of widows and orphans of central Europe. Mrs. Rudolf Cronau is the president, Mrs. Paul Wenzel secretary and Mrs. Wolfram E. Dreyfus treasurer.

Mrs. Benjamin Adriance will give a dinner and dance for the members of the board of the New York Mozart Society on March 21 at the Hotel Astor winter, have started on a motor through southern France.

Mrs Tames A Hanley at bridge on March 27 at the Waldorf-

Mr. Adolph Lewisohn has arrived at White Sulphur Springs, Va., from Palm Beach. He is accompanied by a party

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander P. Moor (Lillian Russell), who went abroad a couple of months ago and have been touring southern France and Italy, have returned to Paris. They will sail for

Mr and Mrs. Theodore F. Hicks of 22 East Forty seventh street have left for a two months' trip to the West Indies, South America and Panama. They are accompanied by their daughter, Mrs.

Mrs. George McAneny and her daugh-ter. Miss Ruth McAneny, are at Lake-wood. They are accompanied her Miss Victoria Evans of Spartanburg, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Greeff, Jr., ar Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Greeff, Jr., are spending their honeymoon at Lakewood. They will pass the summer with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Twyfort, in Mahwah. N. J. Mrs. Greeff was Miss Katharine Twyfort and her marriage to Mr. Greeff was celebrated on February 25 in All Agnels Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Crane, who wen abroad recently, are at present in Paris. They will leave there soon for a trip to Belgium and Holland.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Philip Halden-stein, who were married on Monday at the St. Regls, have gone to Florida on their honeymoon. On their return they will live at 71 Central Park West. Mrs. Haldenstein was Miss Minna Kempner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isidor Kemp-ner of 342 West Eighty-seventh street. Mr. Haldenstein is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Isidor Haldenstein of 321 West Ninety-second street, and a cousin of Mrs. Louis Ralston gave a recept! Mrs. Louis Raiston gave a reception on Friday afternoon at her home. 205 West Seventy-ninth street, for Mrs. Harry Lilly, president of the Priors, and Miss Cherrie Clarke, the founder and honorery president of the organization. Mrs. Raiston is the fifth vice-president of the club, whose members are composed of women who have either organized or founded a club. Ninety-second street, and a cousin of Arthur Michaels Samuels, M. P., one time Lord Mayor of Norwich, England. He was graduated from Columbia in

On Monday afternoons during Lent the members of the board of managers of the Darrach Home for Crippled Children will meet at the home of Mrs. Thomas Willard, 44 Riverside Drive, to sew for that have gone to Bermuda on their honeymoon. They were married on Tuesday at the St. Regis. She was Miss Ethel Frank, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. rienry Frank of 154 West Seventy-eighth street. They will live in this city on their return. of 635 Park avenue, who spent the winter at the Everglades Club, Palm Beach, have arrived at White Sulphur

Under the auspices of the New York Drama League a recital will be given on March 28 at one of the theaters by Miss Dorothea Spinney, the English or on Hudson have joined the cottage colony at Miami, Fla. They are accompanied by their son, Mr. Porter Fearey, Jr., and Mr. Lloyd N. Scott,

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph T. Loening, who spent their honeymoon at Hot Springs, have returned to New York. They will live in Princeton. Mrs. Loening was Miss Gertrude Glibert, daughter of Mr. Fifty-third street sailed on Wednesday Australia to England.

Supper Club. Among those who re-served tables were Lady Muir Mac-Kenzie, Count and Countess Dru de Montgelas, Mrs. Thayer Iaccaci, and Mrs. Charles de Rham, Jr. Prizes were awarded for the best costumes.

The afternoon bridge party for the benefit of the late Mrs. James Speyer's Hospital which was to have been held at the Ritz-Carlton on March 21 has been postponed until April 4 and 6. Mr. Milton C. Work, who will have charge of the bridge, will lecture on each hand and show how it should be played. Among those who have taken tables are Mrs. Edward M. Weld, Mrs. Phillips Allen Clark, and Mrs. Henry Ingersoll Miss May T. Moulton entertained a small party of friends at luncheon on Wednesday.

The Junior League of the Vacation Home for Crippled Children will give a dance at the Ritz-Carlton on Saturday evening. Miss S. Wallach has charge of the arrangements. The proceeds will be devoted to the maintenance of the home at Spring Valley. The annual luncheon of the Women's Missionary Society of the West Park Presbyterian Church will be held on Tuesday in the chapel of the church, Ruesay in the chape of the church Elighty-sixth street and Amsterdam avenue. It is in charge of Mrs. L. G.

Campbell and Mrs. W. R. Jenkins. The proceeds will be added to the fund of the Missionary Society.

Alpha Epsilon Phi Sorority gave its annual dance for charity last evening at the Hotel Biltmore. The proceeds will be given to the Jewish War Relief Delive. The annual concert of the Mendelssohn Glee Club will be held at the Waldorf-Astoria on the night of April 4.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Aldrich, who sailed on Tuesday on the Arabic for the Mediterranean, will remain abroad about four months. They will visit Italy. France and England.

Mrs. Philip C. Boerum will give a theater party on Wednesday. After the performance she will take her guests to the Hotel Astor for supper. the Hotel Astor for supper.

Athene Club, Mrs. Katherine A. Martin president, will have a bridge party on Monday afternoon, March 20, at the Waldorf-Astoria.

Mrs. Louis Judell, who were married on Wednesday, will live in this city when they return from their wedding trip. Mrs. Judell was Miss Agnes Hendricks Levy, a daughter of Mrs. L. Napoleon Levy of 18 West Seventy-second street.

Mrs. Owen J. McWilliams gave a luncheon followed by bridge on Thursday at her home, 316 West Seventyninth street. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cresswell are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son on Wednesday at the New York Nursery and Child's Hospital. Mrs.

Mr. and Mrs. Fieming Tuckerman-and their son, Mr. Arthur Tuckerman, of 11 East Thirty-second street, who sailed on Wednesday by the Arabic, expect to re-Cresswell was Miss Catherine Henriquez. The Wells College Club of New York toria on March 21. It will start the campaign to raise $1,000,000 for Wells College. Alumns in all large cities have arranged dinners for the same night. Mrs. Walter J. Salmon is chairman of the committee for the New York dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lehmaler of 906

Mrs. William H. Hirst gave a dinne on Thursday at her home, 375 Park avenue, for Mr. and Mrs. Josef Stransky.

The Silver Cross Day Nursery Mr. Franklin D'Olier of Philadelphia motored over to New York on Wednes-day to spend Sunday here. He is stop-ping at the Hotel Vanderbilt. have a benefit bridge on Thursday after-noon, April 6, at the Waldorf-Astoria.

memorial services on Saturday after-noon, April 22, at the Church of the Heavenly Rest. The Rev. Dr. Wasson will conduct the services. Dr. and Mrs. Edward Acheson and Mr. Howard A. Acheson of this city, who have been in Havana for a few days, have returned to Miami, Fia. They made the trip to Cuba by airship. The New York Euphony Society, Mrs. James J. Gormly, president, will give a bridge party at the Waldorf-Astoria on

Col. and Mrs. George W. Kavanagh of the Carlton House, 22 East Forty-seventh street, gave a reception with music there yesterday for Gov. Edwards of New Jersey and Mrs. Edwards. evening at the studio of Miss Vera Simonton, 24 East Fortleth street, far Mrs. William Atherton Du Puy, national president of the League of American

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Denegre of Washington, who have been at the Ritz-Carlton for a few days, gave a dinner party there on Wednesday night. They returned to Washington on Friday.

Mrs. Charles White Nash of Albany

Mrs. Du Puy was the guest of honor at a dinner on Monday given by Mrs. Henry Wilder Keyes at the latter's home in Washington. Goucher College women of the metro-Goucher College women of the metro-politan district, as a part of their con-tribution to Goucher's $6,000,000 build-ing fund, have arranged to dispose of a large block of tickets for the perform-ances on March 20 and 21 of "He Who Gets Slapped." the comedy at the Ful-ton Theater. On the committee in charge

The Lambda Gamma Sorority will

The members of Company M, Seventh Infantry, N. Y. N. G., will hold their annual dinner-dance the evening of Fri-on Miss avenue, New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Blair MacAdam Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Blair MacAdam have just started on a belated honey-moon. They were married on December 30 in Stamford, Conn., but did not reveal the fact until last week, when they each informed their mothers. Mrs. MacAdam was Miss Marion Hibert Leon, a daughter of Mrs. Alexis Marcy Leon of the Sherman Square Hotel. Mr. MacAdam is the son of Mrs. Thomas MacAdam of the Hotel Lucerfie. His father, the late Thomas MacAdam, was a well known lawyer. A costume ball was given in the grill father, the late Thomas MacAdam, room of the Hotel Lorraine last evening a well known lawyer.

Debutantes of Staten Island in Colonial Play

Mrs. Murray's Dinner Party Presented at New Brighton -Social Notes.

COLONIAL play in three acts, their appearance on the stage with her report as chairman of Americanienthusiasm. Mrs. H. F. De Nyse di- zation.

The "Pavlowa Gavotte" was inter- served refreshments. preted by the Misses Florence and

The marriage of Miss Mathilde Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown of Heberton avenue, Port Richmond, to Mr. Ernest Calvin Cheek of Manhattan will take place on Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock in the Roman Catholic Church of St. Mary's of the Assumption. The Rev. Father John Snyder will officiate. The bride's only attendant will be Miss Mariorie Ballentine.

After a wedding trip to Washington, D. C., the couple will make a tour of the Southern States and to San Francisco, where they will take a steamship to Hawaii and from there go on to China, where Mr. Cheek's interest in Oriental rugs will keep him for several years. Friends of Miss Brown gave a shower for her last week, the arrangements being made by Miss Constance Kerr and Marjorie Ballentine. The guests in Chapter of the Society Schuleen accompanists. At the tea which followed the program members of the Betsy Ross Chapter of the society served. Friends of Miss Brown gave a shower cluded Mrs. Herbert McCrum, Mrs. Robert Brown, Jr., Mrs. Clute, Jr., Mrs.

The Rev. and Mrs. O. M. West an nounce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Helen Louise West, to Mr. Leonard Lees Broome of St. George. The Rev. Mr. West is pastor of the Trinity M. E. Church in West Brighton.

The Woman's Literary Club of Port Richmond met in the chapel of the Dutch Reformed Church on Monday afternoon. An address on "Public Mar-kets" was given by Mrs. Louis Reed Welzmiller, Deputy Commissioner of Public Markets. Mrs. Charles D. Hirst of the Daily Food Alliance gave a talk of the Daily Food Alliance gave a talk on "Milk" and Mrs. Charles Crittenden spoke on "Current Events." Soptano solos were sung by Miss Amy Streeter. The hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. A. H. Ludwig, chairman; Mrs. George Walrath, Mrs. C. Stelnrock, Mrs. W. L. Dryden, Mrs. Fred T. May, Mrs. Elliot Heal, Mrs. Chance and Mrs. Sne-den

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley H. Rudisall of Oakland avenue, West Brighton, are spending a short time in Atlantic City, where they are stopping at the Marl-borough-Blenheim.

Friends of Mr. William H. Pouch have received word of his arrival at Gibraltar on board the George Washington.

Miss Harriet M. Hoyer of Stapleton is spending several weeks with her aunt, Mrs. Oliver A. Sohl, of Tren-

The St. Cecelia Society will meet at the home of Mrs. Ralph McKee, the president, to-morrow morning for practice. The next program of the society will be given on March 29 and will be devoted to the compositions of Saint-Saens.

on Stuyvesant place. Arrang weer made for the 1922 flower sho Arrangements

Mrs. Jack Bayless of Central avenue s spending a short time in Baltimore Miss Ruth Keenan has gone to At-

Mrs. Lewis Nixon, formerly of Staten

Island, gave a tea at her apartment in Manhattan last Tuesday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Eckstein of Cen- Rev. J. Percival Huget, of the T tral avenue ans in Manhattan for a brief stay, stopping at the Hotel Neth-

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Waite en-tertained her mother, Mrs. J. Ran-dolph Grymes, of Manhattan over

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Selmer, for-merly Miss Estelle Simonson, soon will occupy an apartment on Vanderbilt avenue. Clifton. They now are living Mark's place are at home after a six weeks stay in the South. Mr. and Mrs. Christian Sudring of Vanderbilt avenue were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Seeber of Eliza-beth. N. J., over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Decker of Mar-iners Harbor have returned from At-lantic City, where they were for two

The Staten Island Historical Society and the Staten Island Antiquarian Society met last Wednesday evening at the home of E. C. Bridgman, on Townsend avenue, to consider the advisability of merging. They decided finally to amalgamate the two bodies under the title of the Staten Island Historical Society. At the conclusion of the business meeting refreshments were served. The committees that handled the merger cluded, for the Historical Society C Bridgman, Terison Whiteling, A. Allison and Mrs. N. E. Chapman; the Antiquarian Society, A. A. Michel, C. F. Grieshaber and T. Livingston

Fort Greene Chapter D. A. R. Holds Meeting in Brooklyn

Mrs. John Schoonhoven Talks on 'Americanization as Carried on by the Children's Museum'-Long Island State Society D. R. Celebrates President's Day.

HE March meeting of Fort Saturday, April 1, at the Hotel Bossert. Greene Chapter, D. A. R., Mrs. Mrs. Stephen Loines of 3 Pierrepent A collowial play in three acts, entitled "Mrs. Murray's Dinner Party," followed by a junior dance, was given by the Staten of Mrs. George H. Her. 383 Clinton Stitute.

William C. Beecher regent, place is to be the hostess next Wednesday at the home given for the benefit of the United Neighborhood Guild and the People's Institute.

Miss Dorothy Cragin gave an in-In the cast were Misses Elsie and teresting description of the magazine Dorothy Dibble, Ruth Hooper, Irma issued by the D. A. R. Mrs. John Jannen, Catherine Johnstone, Helen Schoonhoven talked on "Americaniza-Chappell, Alice Osgood, Betty Balch.
Virginia Boone, Victoria Ellenberg and Marian De Nyse and Messrs. Douglas

Walsh and Robert Greaves.

Lion as Carried On by the Children's Museum." Miss Helen Tiebout, member of the junior committee of the chapter, presided. Mrs. Thomas W. Lauerdale, chairman of hospitality

At the tea table were Mrs. Walter F. Wells and Miss Dorothy Cragin, Martha Ellenberg. The dance music assisted by Mrs. L. V. B. Cameron, Mrs. George S. White, Miss Theda Kenyon and Mrs. Frederick E. Ham-

The Long Island State Society. Daughters of the Revolution, celebrated President's Day at the Pouch Gallery Wednesday, an informal reception preceding an enjoyable program. Mrs. Eugene J. Grant, regent, received, assisted by Mrs. John Franklin Berry, Mrs. Eugene J. Grant, Mrs. Thomas C. Mille, Mrs. Edward T. Williams, Mrs. I. Sherwood Coffin, Mrs. Frank H. Thompson, Mrs. Gurdon Gates. Mrs. David E. Thomas, Mrs. Herbert H. Gleason and the Rev. Charles W. Roeder, pastor of the Flatlands Reformed Church. Mrs. Don C. Seitz, chairman, introduced the speakers and artists. They were Arthur M. Howe, editor in chief of the Brooklyn Daily Eagle: Theodore Compton, Miss Louise Reid, violinist; Miss Mildred Seitz, soprano; Miss Margery Swem, dances and impersonations, and Mrs. Charles R. Gay; Miss Alice McMilled Med Miss Alice Medical Miss Mark Miles Med Miss Alice Medical Miss Mark Miss Alice Medical Medical Medical Miss Alice Medical Medical Miss Alice Medical Medical

The Brooklyn Smith College Club met Kerr, the Misses Mary and Alice Kane, Mabel Cox, Vera and Marie Finiey, May Burke, Mabel Callahan, May Foster, Mary Bevans, Mildred Gerson and the Misses Edith, Gertrude and Margaret sociation, gave an interesting talk on the college and its development.

> The Virginia Dare Chapter, Daughters The Virginia Dare Chapter, Daughters of the Revolution, held a meeting Tuesday at the home of Miss Elizabeth Holman, 51 Winthrop street. Miss Eunice Z. Gates gave a talk concerning her experiences on the Continent last summer. Arrangements are being made for a tea and dance to be given by the chapter in conjunction with the George Washington Chapter at the Brooklyn Woman's Club on Saturday. April 1. Club on Saturday, April 1.

> "Illuminate" gave a benefit card party at the Hotel St. George on Monday afternoon. A short business meeting preceded the event. Mrs. Mary Stokes MacNutt was elected honorary president. Mrs. Egbert Guernsey Brown, president: Mrs. William Buegass, first vice-president: Mrs. Frank Johomot, second vice-president: Mrs. Rollin S. Covert, treasurer: Miss F. O. Curtis, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. John Goundy, recording secretary. rding secretary.

Miss Marion Gallagher, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Vincent J. Gallagher of 667 Ocean avenue, has returned from school in France after a year's study. Capt. Rhind of the America gave a dance for her on the return trip.

Mrs. Arthur Hubert Longstreet, of 592
Second street, gave a bridal shower on Wednesday for Miss Margaret Laurita Longstreet whose engagement to Mr.
Eward Dayton Lewis, of Hempstead, oungters have been established.

will take place in April. Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Hammer, of 1221
Bedford avenue, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Ella Arline Hammer to Mr. William H. Wray, Jr., of Brooklyn and Seaford, L. I. Miss Hammer was an active Red Cross worker at the Reconstruction Hospital at Colonia, N. J. Mr. Wray attended Polytechnic and Stevens Institutes and served overseas as a lieutenant.

1318 President street, have announced the engagement of their daughter. Miss Marion Ethel Edmonds, to Mr. De Witt Bergh Pentz, son of Mr. and Mrs. De Witt Pentz of 1285 Dean street.

Miss Hazel G. Ogden, daughter of Mr and Mrs. Samuel Brown Ogden, of 18 McDonough street, was married to Mr Dyson Armstrong Kennedy, of Lans-

Congratulations are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Serrill Flash 53d of Tyson street. New Brighton, on the birth of a son on Monday.

The engagement of Miss Helen Curran. of 38 Prospect Park, Southwe to Mr. James H. Burns, of Shelter I and, L. L. was announced at a lunc con given recently by Miss. and, L. L., was announced at a func-eon given recently by Miss Curran's aunt. Mrs. T. F. Scholl, of 496 Mans-field place. Miss Curran is the daugh-ter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William J. Curran. Mr. Burns is the son of Mr.

A card party was given by Miss Edna Halliday at her home. 194 Hancock street, last Saturday.

Stuyvesant High School and now is con-nected with the Durant Motorcar Com-

Mrs. Edward L. Delany, of 352 Eastern Parkway, entertained at a lui and bridge at her home Monday.

Miss Lucille Nancy Bendernagel. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Bendernagel, of 261 New York avenue, and Mr. William Joseph Heacock, son of and Mr. William Joseph Heacock, son of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Heacock, of 1079 East Thirty-sixth street. Brooklyn, were married last Saturday at the home of the bride's parents. The bride is a graduate of Packer Institute and a member of the Schola Cantorum, of Manhattan. Mr. Heacock is a member of the Apollo Club.

'Scandals at Shore' Will Be Presented at Forest Hills

Lehbog Circle to Give Play for ing new racquets and anxiously watching the various courts here. The first mild day will see the The Easter dance of the Long Island New Brighton. Friends and relatives talk on the work of her committee. State Society, D. R., and its chapters nets up and the courts in playing condition. Last vestiges of winter skatters appearance on the stage with her report as challenges of the Long Island nets up and the courts in playing condition. Last vestiges of winter skatters appearance on the stage with her report as challenges of the Long Island nets up and the courts in playing condition. Last vestiges of winter skatters appearance on the stage with her report as challenges and the courts in playing condition. The Alumnæ Association of Berkeley the West Side courts and those ad-

The Lehbog Circle, which recently Nursery in the Masonic Temple at A meeting of the Associate Alumnae of Adelphi Academy was held Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John T. Underwood, 336 Washington avenue.

Allan T. Henning of Forces Hills by Allan T. Henning of Forces Hill The class of 182 of Berkeley Institute

Allan T. Hopping of Forest Hills. Patronesses include the Misses Frances

Miss Marguerite Bergen, president of St. James Alumnæ, heads the patroness committee for the St. James Alumnæ dance, which is to take place next Fri-day evening. Assisting Miss Bergen are Miss Adelaide Sullivan, Miss Katherine Hogan and Mrs. George G. Worthley.

Thursday.

quarters have been established. The club is to be largely a social or-

Wednesday night at the hotel, Miss Deeks Sings at Beethoven Musicale

Bowdoin graduates, whose object is to aid the alumini in the raising of an endowment fund. Before July 1, 1922, $166,000 must be obtained by the college and its friends if the full sum necessary for the endowment—$450,000—is to be made up and the salaries of professors and instructors put on a higher basis.

Mrs. Kate Douglas Wiggin has been

ENNIS players already are test-

Sixteenth street, are taking a weeks' cruise to the West Indies.

evenings, March 24 and 25.

The Brooklyn colony, National Society of New England Women, has completed arrangements for a card party to be held next Wednesday afternoon, March 15, at the Pouch Mansion. The Brooklyn Colony held its president day last Thursday.

Chiropean, Mrs. Frank Kendall Perkins, president, announces the following program for the month: Thursday, March 16, 2 P. M., regular social day, committee on municipal affairs; Tuesday, March 21, 2 P. M., committee on philanthrophy: Thursday, March 23, 10 A. M., meeting of the board of trustees at the home of the chairman, Mrs. Ferdinand Van S. Parr, 274 Lefferts avenue, Flatbush. The committee on home and country took charge of last Friday's meeting, which was held at the home of Mrs. Charles Foster, 40 Montgomery place. Mrs. John W. Hartfield was chairman.

Newspaper Women of City Organize Club

The first club ever organized by active

The first club ever organized by active

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hawley Van Wyck to this city and Great Neck, L. L. have announced the engagement of 615 Fifth acvenue, Flatbush. The committee on his city and Bar Harbor, and a brother of Mr. Tyler C. Bronson. During the war he served in the United States Naval Reserves.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hawley Van Wyck of this city and Great Neck, L. L. have announced the engagement of 615 Fifth acvenue, Flatbush. The committee on his city and Brent Neck, L. L. have announced the engagement of 615 Fifth acvenue, Flatbush are announced the engagement of 615 Fifth acvenue, Flatbush are announced the engagement of 615 Fifth acvenue, Flatbush are announced the engagement of 615 Fifth acvenue, Mrs. Bronson of 615 Fifth acvenue, Flatbush at the late of Mr. Bronson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Melvin A. Bronson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Melvin A. Bronson of this city and Brent Neck, L. L. have announced the engagement of 615 Fifth acvenue, Flatbush are announced the engagement of 615 Fifth acvenue, Mrs. Bronson of 615 Fifth acvenue, Mrs. Bronson of the late Mr. Bronson of the

The first club ever organized by active disarmament conference in Washington Major Howell served with the Eighty-and Mrs. George Mellick of Plainfield, and Mrs. George Mellick of Plainfield, N. J., of the engagement of their convenience of the members. Twenty-five women, representing many New Walter Mills of New York city.

president, 59 West Seventy-fourth street, on Friday.

The Manhattan Matinee Club, Mrs. Frank H. Scardefield acting president, will have a luncheon on Wednesday at the Waldorf-Asteria. Mrs. D. Wadsworth will be the hostess, and afterward the members will attend a performance of "Bulldog Drummond."

On Monday Mrs. W. J. Curtis of 888 Fifth avenue gave a luncheon to celebrate the formation, of the Society of Bowdoin Women, an organization of the wives, mothers, sisters and friends of Bowdoin graduates, whose object is to aid the alumin in the relation.

Silver Cross Day Nursery -Social Notes. FOREST HILLS GARDENS, L. I., March 11.

Institute will hold its president's day at joining the Forest Hills Inn. "The Poly Follies" will be given by the Poly Prep Alumni Association at the Academy of Music, Eriday and Saturday the Plaza, will repeat the performance for the benefit of the Silver Cross Day

Allan T. Hopping of Forest Hills. Patronesses include the Misses Frances and Daisy Wright, Eunice Hill and Elizabeth Ordway. Members of the cast rehearsed at the Inn to-day and remained for the dancing to-night.

Mrs. Naybelle Thayer Jackson of 102 Remsen street, and her sister, Mrs. Sadie Thayer Platt of 89 Henry street, were pasengers on board the Empress of Bitlain, which sailed recently for Cuba, the Panama Canal and Bermuda.

Miss E. K. Boyd of Brooklyn is stopping at the Hotel Green, Pasadena, Cal.

Mrs. Caroline G. Buck of 679 Lafayette avenue, who is at Palm Beach, will leave there for Brooklyn Wednesday.

Among those who arrived here on board the White Star liner Homeric from Cherbourg and Southampton, were my. Preston Sturges of 84 Boerum street and Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Herz of 38 Livingston street.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Griswold Hall of SI Plaza street, have returned home after a trip to Havana, Palm Beach and Other points in the South.

Church in the Gardens last Sunday before an audience that crowded the church to the doors. He celebrated his eighty-sixth birthday last December. He has been editor of the Outlook for a half century.

Dr. and Mrs. Irving V. Gerard of 499 Notable Weddings and Engagements

Continued from First Page.

Stuart, Her older sister, Miss Helen

York city papers, attended the first meeting. Miss Martha Coman of Trix New York Harhalb was chosen temporary chairman: Miss Emma Bugbee of the Tribune, secretary, and Miss Theodors Bean of the Morning Telegraph, treasurer. The Brooklyn Eagle was represented by Mrs. Esther A. Coster.

The committee on membership is composed of Misses Coman, Bugbee and Bean, also Misses Jane Grant of the Times; Anne Dunlap, American; Jane Dixon, Telegram; Mary Watts, Tus Sun, and Mrs. Ober of the World.

A second meeting is called for next lanta, Ga, have announced the angular definition of New York city.

Formal announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Agnes Burke, of Mrs. Eugene S. Burke of Morristown, N. J., to Mr. Robert Hale, son of Judge Clarence H. Hale of Portland, Me. Miss Burke is a graduate of Format American in the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Hale was graduated from Bowdon in 1910, from Oxford in 1912 and from the Harvard Law School in 1914. He served overseas with the Y. Mr. and Mrs. John E. Murphy of Atlanta, Ga, have announced the constant of the served overseas with the Y. Mr. and Mrs. John E. Murphy of Atlanta, Ga, have announced the constant of the served overseas with the Y. Mr. and Mrs. John E. Murphy of Atlanta, Ga, have announced the constant of the served overseas with the Y. Mr. C. A. Mr. Hale was graduated from Bowdon in 1914. He served overseas with the Y. Mr. C. A. Mr. Hale was graduated from Bowdon in 1914. He served overseas with the Y. Mr. C. A. Mr. Hale was graduated from Bowdon in 1914. He served overseas with the Y. Mr. C. A. Mr. Hale was graduated from Bowdon in 1914. He served overseas with the Y. Mr. C. A. Mr. Hale was graduated from Bowdon in 1914. He served overseas with the Y. Mr. C. A. Mr. Hale was graduated from Bowdon in 1916 from Down of the Mrs. Eugene S. Burke is a graduated from Bowdon in 1916 from Down of the Mrs. Eugene S. Burke is a graduated from Bowdon in 1916 from Bowdon in 1916

A second meeting is called for next lanta, Ga., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Julia Murphy, to Mr. C. P. Whitehead of this city

Beethoven Musicale

Beethoven Society, Mme. Aida Tanini
Tagliavia president, held its last musicale of the season yesterday afternoon at the Hotel Plaza. The artists were Miss Clara Deeks, soprano, and Fernando and the program.

The society will have its last patroness dance on March 30 at the Plaza, and on April 19 the last evening concert will be held. The closing event of the season will he a dinner and dance on April 27 at the Hotel McAlpin. A directors meeting will be held at the home of the president, 59 West Seventy-fourth street, on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Silvanus Macy of Avon, N. J., have announced the engagement of the intermediacy in the engagement of the intermediacy in the Mrs. Silvanus Macy of Avon, N. J., have announced the engagement of the intermediacy in the macy in the engagement of the intermediacy in the Mrs. Silvanus Macy of Avon, N. J., have announced the engagement of the intermediacy in the engagement of the intermediacy in the Mrs. Silvanus Macy of Avon, N. J., have announced the engagement of the intermediacy in the engagement of the intermediacy in the Mrs. William E. Sloan, Jr., of Rochester, N. Y. Miss Macy is a graduate of the Farmington School and is a great-grandaughter of Mr. Silvanus J. Macy and a great-grandaughter of Mr. Silvanus Macy of Avon, N. J., have announced the engagement of the indicator in the macy is a graduate of the Farmington School and is a grandaughter of Mr. Silvanus J. Macy and a great-grandaughter of Mr. Silvanus J. Macy and a g Mr. and Mrs. Silvanus Macy of Avon

Mr. and Mrs. William W. Heacock of 1079 East Thirty-sixth street. Brooklyn, were married last Saturday at the home of the bride's parents. The bride is a graduate of Packer Institute and a member of the Schola Cantorum, of Manhattan. Mr. Heacock is a member of the Apollo Club.

The annual luncheon of the Brooklyn West Fifty-eighth street. Checks should West Fifty-eighth street. Checks should be made out to the treasurer, Mrs. John W. Frest.

It is of 9 East Thirty-ninth etreet. Mr. and Mrs. Herman H. Mueller of Villa Anna. Bronxville, N. Y. have an nounced the engagement of their daughteness of Maine and its famous old college may be sent to Mrs. Wiggin, 145 West Fifty-eighth street. Checks should be made out to the treasurer, Mrs. John W. Fred. W. Frost.